Brooklyn, (Conn.). Praises W.L.G.'s zeal for the Anti-Slavery cause. His opinions on some points were changed by W.L.G.'s arguments. Cannot agree with W.L.G. in his opposition to the Colonization Society. Believes that the colonization schemes "will be introductory to more efficient measures." People are beginning to think that something should be done about the evils of Slavery. The Colonization Society has opened a channel through which "correct sentiments" concerning the slaves can be disseminated. Finds that the supporters of the Society do not differ as much with his opinions as he supposed. Will have to combat the current belief in the negro's inferiority. The Society thinks that the negroes should show their ability in Liberia.

Says that W.L.G. is too severe on the advocates of colonization. "... they do not deserve the unsparing vituperation which you are continually pouring out upon them." W.L.G. ought to rejoice that so much attention is being focused on the problems of the colored people. "I fear I shall not convince you ... you are as pertinacious of your opinions as I am." Recommends Henry E. Fenson as an agent in Providence. Schools and colleges must be established for colored people. Points out an error in the Liberator's version of his sermon. No.73

Brooklyn, (Conn.). George is expected in Brooklyn. The gallows left at Brighton Street were destroyed by the city authorities. Vigilance committees and Lynch clubs have been organized in the slave states. Plans for the abduction of A. Tappan, G. Thompson and W.L.G. have been made. Money has been appropriated for this purpose. Holds that death is no calamity, for it will hasten the destruction of slavery. Whigs and Jacksonians are vying with each other in expressing their hatred of Abolitionism to win Southern votes. A.L.s. 4 p. 7 7/8 x 4 7/8 in.

To George William Benson

No.11

Brooklyn, (Conn.). Will visit Providence. H. E. Benson's health is precarious. Had a visit from C. C. Burleigh. He has been lecturing diligently. W.L.G. begs to be excused from addressing the ladies' meeting in Providence, since he has always been reluctant to speak in public. Comments on Martin Van Buren's letter to North Carolina about slavery in the Dist. of Columbia. Van Buren distinguishes between the Society of Friends and the Abolitionists, because he wants the Friends' votes. Sent a petition from Brooklyn for abolition of slavery in the Dist. of Columbia to A. T. Judson. A.L.s. 4 p. 12 5'8 x 7 3'4 in.

To Henry Grafton Chapman

No. 34

Brooklyn, Conn. The writer forgot to attend to several things during his last days in Boston. Finds he ought to have sent to the Treasurer of the American Anti-Slavery Society a list of pledges given by donors from states other than Massachusetts. Refers to an agreement made in 1834 which bars the Massachusetts Society from receiving moneys from members of other states except for the Manual Labor School. Asks the addressee to send the Treasurer of the national society a list of all pledges due to him. The writer finds his Society much reduced, and his thoughts are daily in Boston. Presumes that some of the brethren are pleading their cause before the committee of the Rhode Island Legislature at Newport. Has just received news of the destruction of Marion College. Apprehends that "the matter between us and the south will be brought Canterbury, (Conn.). Tells of her interview with the local selectmen, who came to express their disapproval of her school for colored girls. Quotes her answer. Consulted S. J. May, who told her that if she was not afraid, she should go ahead with her project. Asks W.L.G. "to handle the prejudices of the people of Canterbury with all the mildness possible ..." S. J. May will write to A. T. Judson and will make the letter public. W. H. Burleigh, "the school teacher of this village," is siding with her. Arthur Tappan will stand by her. William King is going to New York "to obtain scholars to commence a school for colored boys."

To Anne Warren Weston

No.112

East Hampton, Conn.: Has been in place, where she has sister, over a week; prospect of rousing it for cause of abolition is discouraging; recounts at length impressions received at visit in Fort Lee with Theodore and Angelina (Grimké) Weld; Angelina is very feeble; lecturing was too great a strain, and she worked too hard assisting on Slavery as it is. Sarah M. Grimké and Angelina (Grimké) Weld seem to hold that "any other unpopular cause, if espoused by abolitionists, will retard the progress of that cause." Theodore D. Weld is severe upon us, considering non-resistance pernicious in effect on work for emancipation. His attitude seems one of contempt mingled with pity. L.S. 4 p. 9 7/8 x 7 3/4 in.

cFarmington, (Conn.): Asks W.L.G. to write "a thorough review" of W. E. Channing's book on Slavery. Called on Dr. cJoel, Hawes of Hartford and discussed with him a sermon to be delivered in the Free Church there. J. H. didn't wholly agree with A. A. P. on Anti-Slavery doctrines, and seemed very anxious to avoid criticism. Plans to call a convention to organize a Connecticut State Anti-Slavery society. "After convention there, I hope to have Stanton with me in this state." Wishes G. Thompson had stayed on through the Spring. To William Lloyd Garrison «Farmington, Conn.» Proposes a Union of Abolitionists. Offers nine suggestions. Unhappy divisions have proved a hindrance; union cannot be effected without the omission of matters of opinion, etc., not necessarily connected with slavery. Suggests a meeting of individuals representing different views, and the withholding of publicity unless favorable views should ensue. Other copies of this circular letter will be sent only to Joshua Leavitt, J.G. Whittier, Lewis Tappan, Gerrit Smith, and Theodore D. Weld.
